BIRCH'S Management and Medical Treatment of Children in India. By V. B. GREEN-ARMYTAGE, M.D., M.R.C.P. Sixth Edition. Thoroughly Revised. Rs. 10.

This Edition has been entirely re-written with a view to being of utility to Mothers who are away from immediate professional medical assistance. It has a further object in that it aims to form a text-book to be carefully studied by all who have children and wish to do their best by them.

It goes further than former Editions in that it contains information based on the latest European practice and treats of subjects not usually found in books of this class but which form points of grave anxiety to parents when bringing up their children.

Practitioners will find the present Edition of great value as it epitomizes in one handy volume an aide-mémoire to what cannot but form a very considerable portion of their work.

To read the chapter on malaria and to compare it with the corresponding passage in earlier editions is to realise that really some progress has been made. It is said, by the way, that of all conditions of health appertaining to the climate of India, chronic fever that does not yield to quinine or disappear with a change to the hills is "the" one calling for removal from this country.—STATESMAN.

STALEY.—Handbook for Wives and Mothers in India and the Tropics. Including Chapters on the Care of Children. By Dr. MILDRED STALEY, Physician in Charge, Lady Aitchison Hospital for Women, Lahore. Second Edition. Revised. Crown 8vo. Paper Boards, Cloth Back. Rs. 4. 1916.

This book is designed to give simple, practical advise in plain language to ladies on the care of their health and that of their children in India. It will be found equally of value by the newcomer and the older resident. It covers every contingency that can occur in the life of a married woman.

"For diseases of women and children in India nothing could be better than Miss Mildred E. Staley's Handbook."—BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL.

"The book is written chiefly for the lay public, i.e., for wives and mothers. It is thoroughly practical, and written in a clear and easy style. There are also many useful remarks on the customs and habits of Indian households which render the book very useful to Indian ladies."—INDIAN MEDICAL GAZETTE.

"Dr. Staley has written an eminently practical book. We can cordially recommend this little handbook to any women whose lot may take them to India or other tropical countries."—LANCET.

BIRDS OF AN INDIAN GARDEN

By T. BAINBRIGGE FLETCHER, R.N., F.L.S., F.E.S., F.Z.S.
Imperial Entomologist, Pusa
AND
C. M. INGLIS, M.B.O.U., F.E.S., F.Z.S.

Illustrated with Thirty Coloured Plates and Numerous Black and White Illustrations in the Text.

THIS IS A WORK possessing all those attractive qualities of the most popular nature books produced in Great Britain.
THE TEXT IS BY A WELL-KNOWN and highly qualified author who is one of the leading writers on Indian Natural History subjects resident in this country. It is an intimate and a charming study of our feathered friends frequenting the Indian Garden.
IT IS LAVISHLY ILLUSTRATED with a number of coloured plates, beautifully executed, and with numerous black and white sketches in the text.
THE ARRANGEMENT AND QUALITY OF THE WORK, the paper on which it is printed and the good type which makes reading a pleasure, all combine to make this work one that will be appreciated and treasured by all who have felt the need of a really enjoyable bird book for India.
AS THE FIRST BOOK OF ITS KIND to include coloured illustrations it helps to fill a large gap and a long-felt want among those to whom the beautiful colouring of our Indian Birds is not only one of their chief charms, but often the only sure means of knowing them. The publishers feel confident, therefore, that "BIRDS OF AN INDIAN GARDEN" will be warmly welcomed.

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

IN the present which is the SIXTY-FOURTH consecutive issue of THACKER'S INDIAN DIRECTORY, the improvements in the last issue have been continued and the increased popularity of the book shows that the new style has met with popular appreciation.

The Directory now contains ten maps, namely, Railways in India, Calcutta (three maps), Bombay Island, Bombay City, Madras, Delhi, Karachi and Rangoon. In future issues the Map Section will be further developed.

The Publishers desire to point out the Industrial Section of the Directory which is very complete and, for the convenience of the public, both in India and elsewhere, it is reprinted in a separate volume entitled THACKER'S DIRECTORY OF THE CHIEF INDUSTRIES OF INDIA, BURMA AND CEYLON. This separate volume which has now been published for thirty-five years is convenient and very popular. It contains an index of Residents and Places. A valuable feature is the distinguishing "Marks" of all the various Tea Estates. So greatly is this feature appreciated that the Chief Industries Directory is widely known in London as the "Tea Marks" Directory!

The Publishers also find it necessary to state that they cannot accept responsibility for the financial status of businesses that are chronicled or that advertise in the Directory. Information and advertisements come in such a volume that, although the greatest care is exercised the possibility of error must be considered.

The scope of Thacker's Indian Directory is so very large that there are some features of it that may escape the notice of the public. It will be useful therefore to draw attention to them. It includes the whole of the territories under the Government of India and all the Native States, independent and semi-independent. There is a most complete Newspaper and Periodical Directory, a list of all periodical publications in India with the object each has in view, rate of subscription and address. The Indian Customs Tariff is corrected to date and embraces all the revisions made by the recent important legislation. This is a valuable asset to everybody engaged in commerce at the present day when the duties are so varied and empirical.

Attention is also directed to the Classified List of Trades and Professions, which occupies a considerable section of the book and takes in Calcutta, Bombay, Madras and the Mofussil. Year by year the Publishers attempt to improve this section realizing its value and they will always be glad to include information in it that has been omitted.

The Publishers avail themselves of this opportunity to again tender their best thanks to all those who have so willingly and courteously responded to their call for information and beg the kind consideration of their constituents to the fact, that during the cold season in India all changes in the personnel of every establishment are made or are in contemplation, such information being frequently withheld until the changes are settled, and to cope with this delayed material demands a large effort and expenditure in every direction.

The greatest care is exercised in the compilation and a large staff is employed on this work all the year round. But mistakes may occur, in so large a book they are almost unavoidable. The Publishers take this opportunity of stating that they can accept no responsibility where information is tendered to them, accepted in good faith and published as genuine.

To Advertisers, the Publishers would point out that "THE INDIAN DIRECTORY" is recognized as an indispensable book of reference in every office in India; it is in constant use throughout the year and affords a permanent means of bringing advertisements continuously before the public. Indeed, this is particularly to be noted by advertisers in England and it should be realized by them that their announcements are read with interest by thousands of dealers throughout this vast country where such information is most badly needed and exceedingly difficult to obtain. The London offices of THACKER'S DIRECTORIES, LTD., is W. Thacker & Co., 2, Creed Lane, Ludgate Hill, London, E. C. 4, where copies may be obtained and information on all subjects connected with the Directory is always available.

FOREIGN MONEY-ORDERS

RUPEE MONEY-ORDERS

The Foreign Post Directory included in Post Office Guide shows the countries and places with which money-orders may be exchanged. Money-orders expressed in Rupees may be drawn on those countries and places against which, in the Guide, the limit of amount is stated in rupee currency.

Money-orders expressed in rupees may also be drawn on the Indian States of Chamba, Gwalior, Jhind, Nabha and Patiala.

The amount of a money-order issued under this clause must not exceed Rs. 600 nor include a fraction of an anna.

NOTE.—All money-orders offices are authorised to issue and pay money-orders payable in, or received from, the countries and States referred to in this clause.

The ordinary inland money-order form must be used in the case of money-orders for Ceylon, Portuguese India and the Indian States and payees' acknowledgments are exchanged with only those countries and States. In the case of money-orders for other countries, a special form, which may be obtained gratis from the Post Office, must be used.

The names of remitters and payees of money-orders for Iraq, Tanganyika Territory (service temporarily suspended), the Seychelles, the Straits Settlements and Zanzibar must, in the case of Europeans, include the surname and at least the initial of one Christian name, and in the case of natives of India, the name, tribe or caste, and father's name.

NOTE 1.—In the case of money-orders drawn on the German Protectorate of Kiaketschou (temporarily suspended), Macao, Japan, Corea, Formosa, or any of the Japanese postal agencies in China, the names of the payees, when the latter are natives of Japan should be given in full, without abbreviations of any kind. When both the remitter and the payee of such a money-order are natives of Japan or China, the remitter should present along with the money-order a separate slip of paper containing the full name and address of the payee written in Japanese or Chinese characters, as the case may be.

NOTE. 2.—The re-direction to any of the countries or places with the exception of the Indian States of money orders originally received from any of those countries or places for payment in India is subject to a fresh charge on account of commission at half the rates of commission applicable to inland money-orders or money-orders expressed in sterling, according as the country or place to which the order is re-directed is one on which money-orders are drawn in rupee currency or in sterling currency. Should the amount of this fresh charge, however, calculated at the rates mentioned, include a fraction of an anna, the amount will be raised to the next complete anna.

The remitter of a foreign rupee money-order in respect of which an advice of payment is available can obtain such advice of payment by paying a fee of one anna in addition to the commission chargeable on the money-order. Advices of payment are obtainable from all countries with which money orders are exchanged except where the contrary is stated in respect of any such country in Foreign Post Directory.

When the remitter of a foreign rupee money order, in respect of which an advice of payment is not available or has not been paid for, desires to have an enquiry made by the Post Office regarding the disposal of the money-order, he will be entitled to this service on payment of the same fee as that chargeable for an advice of payment.

NOTE.—The fee for an advice of payment, if asked for at the time of issue of the money-order, must be paid by means of postage stamps which should be affixed in the space provided for the purpose in the foreign rupee money-order form.

Coupons attached to money-orders payable in Ceylon or Portuguese India should not be filled up by the remitters as the coupons will not be delivered to the payees.

STERLING MONEY-ORDERS

The Foreign Post Directory included in the Post Office Guide shows the countries and places with which money-orders may be exchanged. Money-orders expressed in sterling may be drawn on those countries and places against which, in the Guide, the limit of amount is stated in sterling currency. The amount of a money-order issued may not include a fraction of a penny. Also, the maximum amount for which any one remitter may obtain foreign sterling money-orders in one day is limited to £40.

The rates of commission on money-orders drawn on the countries referred to in clause 297 of the Postal Guide are as follows :—

On any sum not exceeding £1	3 annas
On any sum exceeding £1 but not exceeding £2	5 annas
On any sum exceeding £2 but not exceeding £3	8 annas
On any sum exceeding £3 but not exceeding £4	10 annas
On any sum exceeding £4 but not exceeding £5	12 annas
On any sum exceeding £5 ..	12 annas

for each complete sum of £5 and 12 annas for the remainder; provided that if the remainder does not exceed £1, the charge for it shall be 3 annas ; if it does not exceed £2, the charge for it shall be 5 annas if it does not exceed £3, the charge for it shall be 8 annas ; and if it does not exceed £4, the charge for it shall be 10 annas.

The remitter must apply for a foreign money-order form (which will be supplied gratis by the Post Office), and fill in the necessary entries, adding the signature at foot. The amount of the money-order (whatever be the country of destination) must be stated by the remitter in British (sterling) money, and the equivalent of this amount in Indian currency will be entered in the form by the Post Office. If the country of destination has a different currency, the sterling amount will be converted by it into the local currency for the purpose of payment.

NOTE.—A money-order payable in the United Kingdom may be crossed for payment only through a bank When a remitter desires to make use of this privilege he should write across the money-order form the name of a particular bank or merely the words "& Co" between parallel lines.

The name of the payee should include the surname and at least the initial letter of one Christian name. If the payee be a firm or company, the usual designation of the firm or company will suffice. The address of the payee should be full and precise, as on it depends the determination of the particular money-order office in the Foreign country at which the money-order will be made payable. The surname, and at least one initial of the Christian name, of the remitter should be given; if the remitter be a native of India, his tribe or caste and his father's name should be stated in addition to his own name. The name and address of the payee should be given with such completeness as shall secure identification and prevent risk of wrong delivery.

It will be necessary for the remitter of a foreign money-order to write to the payee informing him of his (the remitter's) name as entered in the order. The payee will receive the money-order direct from the head money-order office of the country of payment.

The remitter will be furnished by the post office with a receipt for the amount paid by him on account of the money-order and commission.

The remitter of a foreign sterling money-order in respect of which an advice of payment is available can obtain such advice of payment by paying a fee of two annas in addition to the commission chargeable on the money-order. Advices of payment are obtainable from all countries with which money-orders are exchanged except where the contrary is stated in respect of any such country in the Foreign Post Directory.

When the remitter of a foreign sterling money-order expressed in sterling has not paid the fee for an advice of payment and desires to have an enquiry made by the Post Office regarding the disposal of the money-order, he will be entitled to this service on payment of the same fee as that chargeable for an advice of payment.

NOTE.—The fee for an advice of payment, if asked for at the time of issue of the money-order, must be paid by means of postage stamps which should be affixed in the space provided for the purpose in the sterling money-order form.

TELEGRAPHIC MONEY-ORDERS, INLAND

Every Post Office which is a Money-Order Office, may issue and pay telegraphic money-orders, except in special cases.

A fee for the issue of a telegraphic money order will be charged at the rate of commission on an ordinary inland money-order for the same amount, added to a telegraph charge calculated at the rates for inland telegrams for the actual number of words used in the telegram advising the remittance, according as the telegram is to be sent as an "Express" or as an "Ordinary" message.

The amount for such money-order must not exceed Rs. 600, and must not include any sum less than a rupee.

If the remitter desires to have a private communication to the payee added to the telegram advising the remittance, he should write it on the coupon of the money-order form and pay for the additional words in excess of twelve at the rate of two annas or one anna per word, according as the telegram is to be sent "Express" or "Ordinary." Abbreviated address, or Code words to represent the name of the remitter, or the name and address of the payee, must not be used.

INDO-ADEN TELEGRAPHIC MONEY-ORDERS.

Telegraphic money-orders may be issued from any post office in India (including Burma) for the head post office at Aden, and from the head post office at Aden for any post office in India (including Burma). The limits of value and the other conditions laid down in the foregoing clauses relating to inland telegraphic money-orders apply to such telegraphic money-orders: provided that the fees for such telegraphic money-orders will be made up of (1) the money-order commission at the rates applicable to inland ordinary money-order, and (2) a telegraph charge at the rate of one rupee a word for every word included in the telegram advising the remittance provided also that telegraphic money-orders for repayment to the remitters will be returned by post to the offices of issue.

INDO-CEYLON TELEGRAPHIC MONEY-ORDERS.

Telegraphic money-orders expressed in rupees may be exchanged with Ceylon. Every post office that is authorised to issue and pay inland telegraphic money-orders may issue and pay Indo-Ceylon telegraphic money-orders.

The amount of a single Indo-Ceylon telegraphic money-order may not exceed Rs. 600 or include any fraction of a rupee.

The fee for a telegraphic money-order issued in India for payment in Ceylon will be charged at hte rate of commission applicable to an ordinary money-order drawn on Ceylon for the same amount, plus a telegraph charge calculated on the actual number of words used in the telegram advising the remittance, at the rate of one rupee for the first twelve words and two annas for each additional word. "Express" at the rate of rupees two for the first 12 words and 3 annas for each additional word.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPHIC MONEY-ORDERS BETWEEN THE UNITED KINGDOM AND INDIA.

1. Telegraphic money-orders may be issued from any post office in India (including Burma) and from the head post office at Aden for any post office in the United Kingdom or from any post office in the United Kingdom for any post office in India (including Burma) and for the head post office at Aden.

2. The amount of a single telegraphic money-order for or from the United Kingdom may not exceed £40 nor may it include any fraction of a penny.

3. In respect of each telegraphic money-order for the United Kingdom the remitter will be required to pay (1) the money-order commission payable on an ordinary money-order for that country, and (2) the cost of the telegraphic advice (ordinary or deferred, at his option) according to the rate for private messages to the United Kingdom as given in the Indian Telegraph Guide.

4. The remitter may have a private communication to the payee included in the telegraphic advice by paying for the additional words at the rate prescribed for the class selected by him for the telegraphic advice. He may also prepay a telegraphic reply to such communication but the charge for the prepaid reply will be at the ordinary rate. He may also obtain an advice of payment by paying the usual fee of two annas for this service plus the cost of telegraphing the words "Advice payment" at the rate for the class (ordinary or deferred) to which the telegraphic advice belongs.

5. The application for a telegraphic money-order for payment in the United Kingdom must be made out by the remitter on an ordinary foreign sterling money-order form with the words "By telegraph deferred" or "By telegraprs at the ordinary rate," as the case may be written across the particulars.

6. The private communication, if any, to the payee should be written below the particulars of the money-order and should invariably be in English, and if it is to be paid for at the deferred rate it must also be in plain language.

7. If the remitter desires to prepay a reply from the payee, he should write the words "Reply prepaid" at the end of the private message, followed by the number of words in the reply for which the charge is prepaid.

8. If an advice of payment is required, the words "Advise payment" should be written also below the particulars of the money-order.

9. The remitter should specify in the money-order form the name of the telegraph office to which the order is to be signalled. If he is unable to do this he must add the name of the country of destination after the name of the office of payment, and the money-order will then be advised by telegram at his risk.

10. A telegraphic money-order received from the United Kingdom for payment in India will be paid to the payee only at the post office on which it was originally drawn. If payment cannot be made at that post office owing to the payee having changed his address, or from any other cause, the order will be re-issued by post to the United Kingdom for repayment to the remitter.

FOREIGN ORDERS TELEGRAPHED TO OFFICE OF EXCHANGE

The telegraphic money-order system does not apply to any Foreign money-order exchange except those with the United Kingdom, Ceylon, the Seychelles, Iraq and Mauritius but the remitter of a foreign money-order drawn on any other country can have the particulars telegraphed to the Indian office of exchange and that office will, on receipt of the telegraphic advice, issue a money-order on the Foreign country of payment under the Foreign money-order rules. It should be understood that the money-order will be telegraphed to the Indian office of exchange only, and not to the Foreign country of payment.

Except that the remitter will not be entitled to have a private communication added to the telegram advising the remittance, the rates of commission, the limit of value, and the other conditions apply as laid down in the rules relating to inland telegraphic money-orders.

The following conditions apply to money-orders payable in the United Kingdom or any other of the countries and places :—

(1) The maximum amount for which a single foreign sterling money-order can be telegraphed under these rules to the Indian office of exchange concerned is £40, and no such order may include a broken sum less than £1.

(2) A fee for the issue of a foreign sterling money-order telegraphed to the office of exchange will be charged at the rate of commission on a foreign sterling money-order for the same amount added to a telegraph charge calculated at the rates for inland telegrams for the actual number of words used in the telegram advising the remittance, according as the telegram is to be sent "Express" or "Ordinary."

(3) The remitter must fill up the necessary entries in a sterling money-order form and write across the form the words "By telegraph Express" or "By telegraph Ordinary," according as to whether he wishes the telegram advising the remittance to be sent as an "Express" or as an "Ordinary" message. He should then present the form at the window of the post office, together with the amounts of the order and commission.

(4) Foreign money-orders intended for payment in any country to which mails are sent from Bombay by the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company's mail steamers will not be accepted for the purpose of being telegraphed to Bombay, if presented at any post office on the day of departure of those mail steamers

CURRENCY NOTES

Notes of the following denominations, viz., Rs. 1, 2-8, 5, 10, 50, 100, 500, 1,000 and 10,000 are issued without any limit for current legal tender rupees and half-rupees of the Government of India or gold coins, whether coined at His Majesty's Royal Mint in England or at any Mint established in pursuance of His Majesty's order as a Branch of His Majesty's Royal Mint, at the rate of ten rupees for one sovereign.

One, two and a half, five, ten, fifty and one hundred rupee notes of all circles, which are designated Universal Currency Notes are payable at all offices of issue ; other notes are payable at the office of issue only. In ordinary circumstances every Treasury Officer in British India cashes or exchanges Universal notes and notes of higher denominations of the circle in which the Treasury is situated if he can do so without inconvenience, and when this cannot be done conveniently, small sums in Universal notes can generally be exchanged for travellers.

A Universal Currency Note is a legal tender at any place in British India, except by the Government of India at any office of issue, and subject to the same limitation, every other note is a legal tender in its own circle, that is to say, whenever a note forms the integral sum, or a portion, of any payment whatever either to Government, to Companies or to individuals, it is a legal tender either throughout British India or in its circle of issue according as the note is universal or not. A note may be tendered in payment of a debt less than the value of the note, but the payee is not legally bound to accept it and give change.

In order to minimise the chances of the loss of notes in transit through the post, the public should follow the instructions given in clause 40 of the Post Office Guide.

It is optional to keep the numbers of the notes received or paid. Each currency note has a serial letter and No. and a general No. thus : $\frac{V}{16}$ 10106—Serial letter "V," serial No. "16," general No. "10106." No action can be taken with reference to any note until it has been thus fully described, or identified in all these details.

(1) A half-note represents no value, nor has a person holding only one-half of a note any claim to recover value when the other half has been transferred, either by him or by the last legal holder of the entire note, to the legal possession of another person. If one-half of a note is lost, the other half should be sent to the Currency Office of the circle of issue to which the note belongs, and an application for refund of the value of the note made by the person who last held simultaneously both halves of it. Government are under no legal liability to refund value on half-notes, but payment may be made as a concession, if the Controller or Deputy Controller of the Currency think such a course warranted by the facts of the case. Of the 1 and 2½ denominations no half notes nor mismatched notes nor any mutilated notes which cannot be absolutely identified are paid, though cut and soiled notes are paid.

Note—Claims on notes which do not bear any indication on them of the circle of issue to which they belong should be sent to the Currency Officer, Calcutta.

(2) A mutilated or charred note represents no value. Payment can be made only as a concession, and the decision rests, in the first instance, with the Currency Officer, and then, in cases of doubt or appeal, with the Controller or Deputy Controller of the Currency.

(3) Oiled currency notes which are believed to be counterfeit or have been mutilated or disfigured in such a maner as to render their identification doubtful will not be accepted on account of postal transactions.

Note—A mutilated note is one of which a portion is missing but does not include a half note.

When any portion of a note has been erased, inked over, cut out, burnt through, or otherwise altered, so as to throw doubt on the identity of the note or to make it appear as another note, payment on it may altogether be refused and the note impounded.

A mismatched note is one in which half of one note has inadvertently been joined to the half of another note. It represents no value, but the Currency Department is willing to hold such notes on behalf of depositors, and to pay half or full value on them on receipt of either one or both of the corresponding halves as mismatched notes if the facts of the case justify this course. Further, if a mismatched note remains in deposit for one year and no payment has been made on it in the meantime, half or full value on it may be paid according to the rules prescribed for this purpose on the expiration of the above period. Mismatched notes of Re. 1 and Rs. 2½ are not paid.

GOVERNMENT, TRADE AND COMMERCIAL OFFICES, ETC., IN LONDON DEALING WITH INDIAN MATTERS

ECONOMIC AND OVERSEAS DEPARTMENT

INDIA OFFICE, WHITEHALL, LONDON, S W

Secy E J Turner, C B E

This Department deals with all questions concerning Indian Trades, Commerce, Statistics, Economic Products, Industries, Labour and Development, League of Nations, Imperial Conferences, Public Health, Revenue, etc, and its general work more or less corresponds with that of the Department of Industry and Commerce of the Government of India.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

INDIA OFFICE, WHITEHALL, LONDON, S W

Secy, W Stanfall, C I E

This Department deals with the various administrative questions relating to Indian Railways, telegraphs, irrigation works, etc, that come before the Secretary of State for India. A considerable portion of its work arises out of the relations between the Secretary of State and the several Indian Railway Companies domiciled in England. The Government Director of Indian Railway Companies, Sir A E S Bell, C I E, attends the Boards of most of these Companies in the interests of the Secretary of State.

RECORD DEPARTMENT

INDIA OFFICE, WHITEHALL, LONDON, S W

Supdt of records H Mitchell

This Department is charged with the custody of the official records, which comprise many thousands of volumes and extend back to the foundation of the East India Company in 1600. Included in these records are Ecclesiastical Returns of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials of Europeane in India, dating from about the beginning of the 18th Century, and copies of wills etc, from about the sama period. The department is also responsible for the production, presentation, etc, of parliamentary papers relating to India, and for the distribution of official books and maps required in the India office.

LIBRARY OF THE INDIA OFFICE

INDIA OFFICE, WHITEHALL, LONDON, S W

Librn F W Thomas, M A, Ph D (Hony)

This Library (founded in 1801), serves the two-fold purpose of departmental and general reference. The former requires a fairly exhaustive provision of works—descriptive, historical, political, scientific, etc—originated by European contact with India, and the most nearly adjacent countries. But a place is found also for large, in some cases unrivalled, collections of Oriental MSS (Sanskrit, Arabic, Persian, Hindustani, etc), and for the apparatus of philological literature relating to the study of them. There is a reading-room where any member of the public may, upon signing his name, consult Books and MSS, which are also lent to members of both services, retired members and such individuals as are either well known to the Librarian or produce a suitable introduction.

The Library is open daily from 10 a m. to 5 p m (Saturdays 10 a m. to 1 p m.)

JOHN STREET, ADELPHI, W C

This Section was formed in 1869 for the purpose of reading and discussing papers on all non-political questions connected with the progress and welfare of the British Indian Empire

EAST INDIA ASSOCIATION

3, VICTORIA STREET, WESTMINSTER, S W

Instituted for the independent and disinterested advocacy and promotion by all legitimate means of the public interests and welfare of the inhabitants of India generally.

The objects of the East India Association is to promote by all legitimate means the public interests and welfare of the inhabitants of India generally. To attain this object the Council earnestly invite the co-operation of all those who by their position, influence, knowledge of India, or administrative experience are able to render effective assistance and without whose active and liberal support the work of the Association cannot be adequately accomplished

The Association would specially appeal to the Ruling Princes of India, and to all classes of influential and educated Indians, with whose aspirations, so far as these are consonant with moderation and loyalty, it has the warmest sympathy

The co-operation of the commercial and non-official communities in India—British and Indian—and of the active and retired Members of the Government Services, Civil and Military, who have consistently laboured to advance the best interests of the people and have helped to consolidate, maintain, and defend the Indian Empire, will be highly valued

The East India Association is essentially non-official in character, avoiding any connection with English party politics and welcoming as members all those who are interested in the welfare and progress of India, whatever their political opinions. Its policy with reference to Indian questions is progressive, maintaining at the same time a due regard for the conservative traditions of the Indian Empire. It desires to encourage all wise and well-considered projects of social and administrative reform, but at the same time to prevent the people of India from rash and hasty experiments opposed to the customs of the country. It endeavours to regard all questions of administrative and special progress from the point of view of the interests of the inhabitants of India whose wishes, sentiments and prejudices should be respected and whose legitimate aspirations to share in the government of the country should be recognised and sympathetically met

The objects and policy of the Association can be promoted —(1) by providing opportunities for the free public discussion in a loyal and temperate spirit, of important questions affecting India; (2) by providing a centre for the friendly meeting of Indians with Englishmen interested in India; (3) by lectures and the publication of papers or leaflets diffusing accurate information and correcting erroneous or misleading statements about India and its administration; (4) by maintaining a reference library, and (5) by the promulgation of sound and trustworthy information regarding the many weighty problems which confront our administrators in India, so that the public may be able to obtain in a cheap and popular form a correct knowledge of the affairs of our great Dependency

The use of the Reading room and Library is free to Members, who can also have their letters addressed there

Ordinary Members receive the Asiatic Review (gratis)

Student Members receive the Journal of the Association

The India Society—was founded in the year 1910 by a small body of scholars, artists and men of letters (both English and Indian) with the object of promoting in the West and in India itself a better appreciation and understanding of the historic culture of India, especially as represented in the Arts. During the year which followed, the Society has won for its work the sympathy and active support of a distinguished body of members, including several of the ruling Princes of India, together with leaders in art, literature and the public services in many quarters of the world. The Society has worked to some extent through lectures and through correspondence with public departments, but mainly through publications which are distributed free to members in return for their yearly subscriptions. Among these publications may be mentioned the two series of Indian Drawings (chiefly Rajput) edited by Ananda K Coomaraswamy, a work on the music of Hindostan by Mr A H Fox-Strangways, a portfolio of reproductions in colour and monochrome of frescoes from the Buddhist cave-temples of Ajanta, Tagore's "Gitanjali," which for the first time brought the Nobel prize to a poet and thinker of the East, Profsr A. Foucher's "Beginnings of Buddhist Art," the poems of the fifteenth-century mystic Kabir, and various other works, of which a full list will be found in the Society's Annual Report. An important work on Moghal Painting by Sir T W Arnold and Mr Laurence Binyon was published in 1918, and was followed by "A Handbook of Indian Art," by E B Havell. The publication for 1922 "Some Examples of Indian Sculpture at the British Museum," will shortly be issued to members. The letterpress will be by Mr Laurence Binyon and Profsr William Rothenstein, with an introduction by Mr T A Joyce. For 1923 members will receive the volume on "Indian Influences in Asiatic Art" on the completion of the series of lectures which are now being delivered. It will include the lecture of Profsr Strzyfowski. Projects under consideration for future publications include a volume on "Modern Artists in India," by Mr Gangoly; one on "Ancient Architecture in Western India," by Mr Henry Cousens; and an English translation of Profsr Krom's work entitled "Hindu Civilization in Java." The annual subscription is One Guinea. Life-membership can be obtained by a single payment of £12 12*s*. Any further particulars desired together with copies of the last Report can be obtained on application to the Honorary Secretary, 3, Victoria Street, London, S. W. 1

The Commonwealth Trust, Limited.

(Registered in England under the Companies Acts, 1908 to 1917.)

The products of the late BASEL MISSION INDUSTRIALS have long been famous throughout India and many other parts of the world for their excellent quality and reasonable price.

Under the provisions of the Enemy Trading Act, 1916, all the Indian properties of the BASEL MISSION INDUSTRIALS were vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property.

On January 19th, 1920, the Custodian transferred these properties to a Board of Trustees appointed by the Government of Madras, and on the 21st August, 1920, the Trustees transferred them to THE COMMONWEALTH TRUST, LTD.

Valuable properties on the Gold Coast of West Africa, formerly belonging to the BASEL MISSION INDUSTRIALS, have also been transferred to THE COMMONWEALTH TRUST, LTD., under a similar arrangement.

The Memorandum and Articles of Association of THE COMMONWEALTH TRUST, LTD., provide that the company must be, and remain, a British company under British Control, that the shareholders are limited to a fixed cumulative dividend of 5 per cent per annum, free of British income tax, and that surplus profits are to be handed over to TRUSTEES approved by the Secretary of State, to be by them applied for the benefit of the population of the countries where the company carries on business

The Indian properties acquired by THE COMMONWEALTH TRUST, LTD., as described above, include:—

Seven Tile Factories at—
Malpe
Jeppoo (Mangalore)
Kudroli (Mangalore)
Puthiyara (Calicut)
Feroke
Codacal (Edakkolam)
and Olavakkot

Three Weaving Factories at—
Mangalore
Cannanore
and Calicut

And small establishments at Chorbala, Nettur and Codacal.

One Engineering Works at—Mangalore.

In August 1922, THE COMMONWEALTH TRUST, LTD., erected a new Factory in Mangalore where Fire Bricks, Salt Glazed Stoneware Pipes and Earthenware Goods are manufactured.

It was at the Jeppoo Factory (established in 1865) that the famous "Mangalore Patent Tile" was first invented and manufactured.

In the Weaving Factories were produced the well-known "Mission Checks," "Shikaris" and Household Linen

In future, these products will be manufactured by THE COMMONWEALTH TRUST, LTD., which will maintain and improve the high reputation so long enjoyed by these Articles.

Display Composition Costs

No printer can to-day afford to set his display by hand.

All type composition from 5-pt. to 36-pt. is essentially work for mechanical composition, and the most profitable machine for such work is the LINOTYPE.

The Linotype slug—recognised throughout the world as the best unit for type composition—has many additional advantages in the jobbing department.

FAMILIAR FLOWERING TREES IN INDIA

KIGELIA PINNATA (Sausage Tree)
PTEROSPERMUM ACERIFOLIUM (Kanak Champa)
THESPESIA POPULNEA (Portia Tree)

PITHECOLOBIUM SAMAN (Rain Tree)
BAUHINIAS, CASSIAS, STERCULIAS

During recent years, the daily papers and periodicals have been responding to the popular demand for NATURE NEWS, and there has been a marked increase in the publication of literature dealing with animal and vegetable life. Hitherto, however, there has been no simple story of our beautiful Indian Trees, and many City Residents as well as MOFUSSILITES, though eager to gain knowledge in this lore, have been deterred by the apparently insuperable perplexities of Botanical phraseology; and the necessity for a tree book furnishing such information in terms so plain, that the task of identifying trees seen in the roadside avenues of towns and on excursions into the country-side, has long been felt by the publishers. Now they present and can recommend "Familiar Flowering Trees in India" as a thoroughly enjoyable book of general interest to novice and learned reader alike; and, because of the many illustrations of bloom and leaf, and of the many interesting details concerning the place trees occupy in Eastern mythology, their individual traits and economic uses which generally lie buried in the arid pages of scientific works only, they feel confident that it will open the eyes of many to a whole world of beauty which has hitherto lain unnoticed except by a few.
